Hot Sauce

Old St. Augustine Datil Pepper

Sauce | With names like Liquid Lava and, um, Butt Twister, it often seems like hot sauce has become more about attention-grabbing labels than culinary artistry these days. But for a more sophisticated take on spicy sauce, look to St. Augustine, Florida, the epicenter of the universe for datil peppers. These little yellow peppers pack plenty of heat but with a distinctive sweet flavor, and locals will tell you they don't grow the same anywhere else. Try Old St. Augustine. The sauce features datil peppers in a base of carrot juice with lime, garlic, vinegar, and a few secret spices. For devout fireheads, the Snake Bite version provides some extra kick.
